Coming from the north of Europe, this is the perfect trip to experience France differently. This trip to the south of France takes you past Orléans, through the highlights of the region of Occitanie and a stop over in Dijon.

You visit different cities and stay in sustainable accommodations just outside the city.

During the tour you will discover several vineyards where you can taste organic wines. In Carcassonne you can explore the city during a bike ride past various abbeys. When you arrive at Lac du Salagou, take a dip and take a nice walk around the lake.

The village of Saint-Guilhem-le-Désert is one of the most beautiful villages in France, where you can meet local producers and taste local beers at a brewery.

You will find the city of heritage between sea and mountains in Montpellier, and explore the salt flats before heading to Marseille and its local cliffs.

And when heading back north, you will make a stopover in Dijon where you can taste delicious local produce and stay in a green environment.
